

terms and conditions

With the exception of electronic parts the used vehicle parts, which bmw recycling has sold and delivered to Buyers, are eligible for guarantee.

The Buyer can derive only rights from a guarantee by presenting bmw recycling with the commensurate purchase agreement or invoice and if applicable the guaranteed card made for it.

Claims of the Buyer under a guarantee cannot be assigned to third parties.

The guarantee is provided by bmw recycling for a period of two month only from the date on which the good has been delivered to the Buyer. If during the guarantee period during normal use defects to the good are demonstrated, then the Buyer has the right to present the delivered good to bmw recycling for repair or replacement.

The transport from and to bmw recycling of the good presented for repair or replacement good is for the account of bmwrecycling. In case of an incorrect ordering and/or when the good presented for repair or replacement is not eligible for guarantee under the present Guarantee Terms and Conditions, then the transport of the good from and to bmw recycling is for the account of the Buyer.

On the good received by the Buyer after repair/replacement these Guarantee Terms and Conditions shall be applicable.

The Buyer cannot make a claim under a guarantee:

- a. if the Buyer has provided incorrect or incomplete information with regard to the brand and type identification of the purchased good and/or the vehicle for which the part is destined;
- b. if the Buyer has executed or has had executed works, such as but not limited to repair, change and disassembly of the purchased;
- c. if there is a case of improper and/or inexpert built-in/use of the purchased or by use of the vehicle in which the purchased has been built in for other purposes than for which the vehicle is used in normal traffic (speed tests, reliability tests, too heavy load in relation to a combination of persons vehicles and trailer or caravan etc.);
- d. if has been acted in violation of any other clause from the applicable General Terms and conditions or Guarantee Terms and Conditions, to the extent that these have been prescribed at the peril of loss of rights.
